Dear Dr. Jári,

RE: FREE ONLINE COURSE (ASYNCHRONOUS) - 19th (2022) PSH ON THE FUNDAMENTALS OF CLINICAL HYPERTENSION (AUGUST 20, 2022 TO DECEMBER 10, 2022), ORGANIZED BY PHILIPPINE SOCIETY OF HYPERTENSION, MANILA, PHILIPPINES

Greetings!

The Philippine Society of Hypertension (PSH) will hold the 19th (2022) COURSE ON THE FUNDAMENTALS OF CLINICAL HYPERTENSION (CFCH). This course was established as one of the major activities of the society to fulfil its MISSION of decreasing the prevalence, risks, and complications of hypertension. This year, the 19th CFCH will be offered online (asynchronous) and free.

This is a course designed to serve as a review and provide update on clinical hypertension and related disorders.

Target Participants:

- A. Doctors (Consultants, Fellows, Residents)
- B. Paramedical Professionals – nurses, pharmacists, technicians, teachers in the academe

The course will be useful for the following:

- doctors (practicing cardiologists, nephrologists, endocrinologists, neurologists) and other specialists or primary physicians who manage patients with hypertension;
- those teaching hypertension in medical schools and training institutions;
- residents and fellows in-training; and
- doctors preparing to take the “PSH Certifying Examination for Hypertension Specialists.”

The course has the following important attributes:

- authoritative source of the most recent and important information about hypertension;
- lecturers are professors in the academe and/or presidents or officers of specialty organizations concerned with hypertension;
- it is a continuing medical education program free of commercial color, developed, reviewed and delivered by a faculty of experts in their respective clinical areas;
- it is intended to help medical and allied medical practitioners hone their skills and competence in the prevention and management of hypertension; and most importantly,
- it is now given ONLINE free of charge.

In this regard, we, the PSH Board of Trustees and the Committee on 19th CFCH are extending our invitation to you, your officers, country and individual members, our collaborators in US, Europe and Asian region, to join and participate in this noble endeavor.

The online course (asynchronous) consists of fifteen (15) modules and commenced on August 20, 2022 up to December 10, 2022 (1 module per week) via PSH website (www.philippinesocietyofhypertension.org.ph). All modules CAN BE ACCESSED ANYTIME within the said period. Attached herewith is the copy of the course description and the steps on how to register for your perusal. Also, may we request your support in promoting our 19th CFCH by uploading the poster and event information on your society/organization official website.

Should you have inquiry/ies, you may email our Administrative Officer, Ms. Rowena Ramos at phihpn@yahoo.com

Thank you very much and we are confident that you are with us in this worthwhile activity – in fighting Hypertension! Mabuhay!

Very truly yours,

GILBERT C. VILELA, M.D.
